

Wellogig Joins CareSpark's Team

HDM Breaking News, December 5, 2007

Wellogig Inc. is the latest vendor to provide services to CareSpark, a regional health information organization serving 17 counties in Tennessee and Virginia.

Kingsport, Tenn.-based CareSpark will use the Cambridge, Mass.-based vendor's Consult Web portal software to enable physicians to view patient data exchanged via the RHIO.

Other vendors participating in CareSpark include ActiveHealth Management, Allscripts, CGI Group, Cisco Systems, Dell, GE Healthcare, Intel, Initiate Systems, Misys Healthcare, Quovadx, Oracle and Siemens Medical Solutions.

CareSpark was recently awarded a $2.7 million federal grant as one of nine RHIOs that will conduct trial implementations of the national health information network. The RHIO expects to go live with initial services in early 2008. Its service area includes 18 hospitals and 1,200 physicians serving 750,000 residents.
